Information Sharing in the AOD sector using the FVISS and CISS

Pro-Active Sharing, Making a Request for Information & Responding to a Request for Information

Information sharing by an ISE : The Must/May Model™

You MAY share voluntarily with the child, a person with parental responsibility for the child, or a person living with the child. You MAY share voluntarily with another ISE.

You MUST share with another ISE if requested for the purpose of promoting the wellbeing or safety of a child. (or a parent of the child who is not a Perpetrator). with another ISE if requested by the ISE and if you reasonably believe that disclosure to the ISE is necessary.

Family Violence Assessment purpose:

• You MAY share voluntarily with an RAE.

• You MUST share with an RAE if requested by the RAE.

80 Vaada Note: This is a summary. An ISE must also comply with the relevant statutory guidelines.

This chart and the term 'The Must/May Model' are the intellectual property of Our Curious Minds Pty Ltd (www.ourcuriousminds.com). They may only be copied and distributed with the permission of Our Curious Minds Pty Ltd. Version: 2019.08.04

Apply

standard protocols